PENSIONS FOR WIDOWS OF SPANISH WAR VETERANS.

Also for Those of Soldiers in Philippines and Boxer Uprising.

Washington, April 1.- Pensions for widows and minor children of the offi-cers and men who served in the Span-ish war, the Philippine insurrection and the Boxer uprising in China would be authorized by a bill which passed the house late today by a vote of 276

The bill would grant $12 monthly to be widow of an honorably discharged soldier or sailor, and $2 monthly for each child until 13 years of age pro-vided that the widow married the soldier prior to the passage of the bill. The pensions would be limited, however, to widows without means of support other than their daily labor and actual net income not exceeding $250 a year.

An inquiry among the camps of the United Spanish War Veterans indicated that there were about four thousand widows of men who served in the Spanish war and the Philippine insurrection. It is estimated that an appropriation of $2,500,000 would be required to pay the pensions.

ADVICE ABOUT HOW TO REMO

Many physicians use the ingredients contained in El Rado for removing hair in connection with their laboratory work. This shows conclustively how perfectly harmless its action is. Thousands of women have discovered this, loo, and have learned how totally unnecessary it is to go around with unbeautiful growths on lip, chin, cheek, neck or arms. They apply a lew drops of El Rado, the liquid hair remover. Almost instantly the hair vanishes, leaving the skin smooth, verety and even whiter than before. This is because, positively without the slightest harm, the hair has been dissolved. El Rado is now a standard tollet article, used by thousands of women. You need have no more hesitation in asking for and using El Rado than in asking for and using a tollet powder. Try El Rado on your arm; prove for yourself that it will do everything claimed. Your money back if you are not entriely satisfied. In 50c and $1.00 size bottles at all leading drug and department stores, or direct from the Pilgrim Mfg. CONSCIENCE.

I built a wall, and it took many years,
So strong, so grimly fortified its stony face.
Outside I thrust those things that hindered me
And in my busy life had no abiding place. Tears, Sympathy and Leniency were first to go;
Then Generosity and Trust, and hatly Truth.
I drove them forth with many a lusty Mortised the last stones tight. I had Unbampered now my gold and fame could grow.

Fast sped my days—faster my coffers filled.
Within the shadow of my wall I plied a thriving trade—
All the long working hours I wove a gittering web.
Not till the dark shut down was I dismayed. dismayed.

For there remained just one most foolish thing

That would not loose its grip upon my soul.

Each night it waked from sleep with dreudful clamoring

And endless gibings at my puerile For those without, it mourned in con-stant sorrowing. Naught could I do to quiet or con-

Thus driven desperate, I razed my walt with travail sore!

Back trooped those pardoning hopeful things to me once more—
And io! Upon my threshold stood an Angel blotting out a score!

—E. H. Wow.

Oh, our manhood's prime vigor! No spirit feels waste.

Not a muscle is stopped in its playing nor sinew unbraced.
Oh, the wild joys of living! the leaping from rock up to rock.
The strong rending of boughs from the fir tree, the cool silver shock of the plunge in a pool's living water, the hunt of the bear.

And the sultriness showing a lien is couched in his lair.
And the meal, the rich dates vellowed over with gold dust divine.
And the locust flesh steeped in the pitcher, the full draught of wine, and the sleep in the dried river channel where bulrushes tell.

That the water was wont to go warbling so softly and well.
How good is man's life, the mere living! how fit to employ all the heart and the soul, and the senses forever in joy!
